

Dear Partners,

The Battle Spartan baseball team has collaborated with the St. Louis Cardinals for a fantastic fundraising event. We are selling tickets for the Sunday, April 27th Cards vs. Pirates game. After the conclusion of the Cardinals game, the Battle Spartans will take the field against the Hickman Kewpies. Price per ticket is $25 and seating is in the 200/300 level (face value is $54/$41). If you are unable to attend the game, the Spartans have another way to get involved. You can buy tickets and we will donate them to area youths that normally would not get the chance to attend a game in beautiful Busch Stadium. This fundraisers is a great win/win for everyone involved. For more information, you can contact Jared Wood (head baseball coach) at JaWood@columbia.k12.mo.us.
