BASEBALL/SOFTBALL FUNDAMENTALS

Your first responsibility as a Coach is to call your players to let them know what team they are on. This should be done within 48 hours of the clinic. If you do not call your players, parents and players will begin calling the DC Information Line to obtain the information. Once teams have been set and some players have been notified the word will spread like wildfire. Try to provide the following information on your first call:

Your name & phone number

Date & time of parent meeting; 15 minutes prior to first practice

First practice date, time and location

Verify each player's age to make sure the player is in the correct league.

Their age is as of April 1 and their Grade in school.

Coaching a Competitive team versus a Diamond Council Recreational team. When a Competitive team is formed the Coach has chosen his players and the players have chosen their Coach. Whereas, a Diamond Council team is formed by the league and players and Coaches have been assigned by schools. The goal of Competitive and Recreational teams to have fun remains the same; however, the expectations and the measurement of success are different.

Players on your team will have different levels of competitiveness ranging from a social event to wanting to win. Each Coach's greatest challenge is arriving at a happy medium on each team. The number one way to conquer this challenge is to have fun and the second method is to provide each player with the opportunity to improve. The five ingredients to improvement are (1) Opportunity (2) Desire (3) Hard Work (4) Willingness to experiment and (5) Ability to change.

INJURIES

IF YOU ARE NOT QUALIFIED TO DEAL WITH AN INJURY -- DON'T!! CALL 911 OR SUMMON MEDICAL ASSISTANCE IMMEDIATELY. All accidents requiring medical attention should be reported to your League Coordinator so the proper insurance forms can be filed. All players, Coaches, managers and volunteers of Diamond Council are covered by an excess medical policy.

Baseball and softball are dangerous sports

- 1) Always have more than one adult at a practice or a game in case a player's injury requires medical attention. Someone will need to stay with the rest of the team while the player is taken to the hospital.
- 2) Be safety conscious. Be aware of dangerous situations such as the dugout openings
- 3) As many players will be hurt warming up and between innings as will be injured during games.
- 4) Stay in dugouts if not participating.
- 5) Ensure that players of similar skill levels are paired during warm up and drills to reduce the potential for injuries

Diamond Council Equipment Procedure

- 6) Equipment is checked by DC for safety and defects when the equipment is bagged for each team.
- 7) Equipment is checked by DC and the Coach when the Coach picks up the equipment.
- 8) Coaches are instructed at the Coaches' Clinic to notify DC immediately if there is a problem or defect with any of the equipment and it will be replaced immediately.
- 9) Equipment is checked by DC and the Coach when the Coach returns the equipment after the season.

PARENT AND PLAYER RESPONSIBILITY TO COACHES

Scheduled games are only part of the total experience of participating in Diamond Council's (DC's) baseball/softball leagues. Practices are important for players to interact with new teammates, learn new skills and become familiar with their Coaches. Practices provide players with the opportunity to learn proper techniques and provide Coaches with the opportunity to evaluate each player's level of ability. It is important Coaches know each player's skill level so the player is not asked to do something which might be hazardous such as catching, pitching, playing first base and bunting to name a few. Safe equipment, fundamentals learned at practice and knowing a player's limitations all help provide a safe and enjoyable playing environment.

Parents and players are expected to extend their Coaches and teammates respect and common courtesy. All Coaches are volunteers who give their time and energy to provide a wholesome, safe and positive experience for each and every player. DC asks Coaches to have four basic rules for their players and teams.

- 1) Respect your teammates, Coaches, umpires and opponents.
- 2) Listen to your Coaches.
- 3) Play hard.
- 4) Know how to use the telephone, email or text.

If at the end of a practice or a game a player can answer yes to each of these points, then they have done all they can do to be successful and respectful to their Coaches and teammates.

PARENT MEETING

All Coaches should have a parent meeting before or after the team's first practice. Experienced Coaches know the value of a parent meeting. Parents should expect the following information:

- 1) Introduce Parents to the Diamond Council website
- 2) Communicating through email and texting - website
- 3) Use Parks and Rec email and text notifications of cancellations
- 4) Team parents can be assigned
- 5) Outline post game refreshments
- 6) Discuss Coaching and substitution philosophy
- 7) Distribute phone numbers of all of the players and Coaches (website)
- 8) Distribute player hats and participation medals
- 9) Provide picture date and time information
- 10) Provide information on player clinics
- 11) Meet your parents and know who they are; Be aware of strangers at practices
- 12) Obtain information about any special health problems
- 13) Obtain emergency numbers and the hospital of preference
- 14) Outline cancellation notification of games and practices (website)

Coaching is exciting and rewarding. From time to time, you may experience difficulty with parents. Remember that you will be dealing with all types of children and parents with different backgrounds and ideals. One of your main challenges as a Coach is to deal with these differences in a positive manner so the season will be an exciting and enjoyable experience for all.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Columbia Parks and Recreation will monitor weather conditions and inspect the playing fields to determine if the fields are playable. If the fields are deemed not playable, the games scheduled for those fields will be canceled by 4:00 P.M. Signup through Parks and Recreation listserv and you will be able to receive cancellation notices via text message and emails https://www.como.gov/Web_Mail/. Subscribe and scroll to the bottom of the page and check youth baseball and softball.

This information will be available on the SPORTS HOTLINE (874-7663). If no announcements of cancellation have been received, assume the game will be played.

At the start or during a game, Umpires will use their own judgment on the delay or cancellation of games due to weather conditions. Games will not be played if it is determined such play might result in injury to players or serious damage to the playing fields. If lightning or severe weather is present, Umpires will take immediate action to delay or cancel the game and remove the players from the field.

RAINOOTS AND MAKEUPS

Rained out games are not guaranteed to be made up unless you have rained out 3 or more games. Coaches will be able to reschedule any game that is rained out if they want. Just schedule the game like you would a practice and contact the opposing Coach to schedule the game. Umpires will not be available for these games due to the short notice of some games and irregular game times. The procedure for scheduling additional games will be as follows:

- 1) Contact your players and parents to confirm they want to play on the available dates.
- 2) Contact other teams to set up games.
- 3) Call the DC office to reserve a field.
- 4) Field assignments will be posted on the practice field schedule on the web site.

TOBACCO AND ALCOHOL

The use of ANY tobacco materials, alcohol or other controlled substances is prohibited at all games and practices. Tobacco use is not permitted while on the playing field or in the dugouts at any time, but is allowed outside the confines of the playing field.

FORFEITS AND PROTESTS

Forfeits and protests are not allowed, except for a team having seven or fewer players. See Shorthanded Rule Page 19.

OTHER COACH RESPONSIBILITIES

The opportunity to Coach a team, either as a head Coach or an assistant Coach, is a privilege. Remember, you are temporarily a Coach but you will always be a Mom or a Dad. Complaints related to a Coach's conduct will be reviewed, on a case-by-case basis, by the League Coordinator, DC President, DC VP/League Commissioner and the Executive Director. If the situation or problem cannot be corrected in a manner satisfactory to Diamond Council, the Coach will be replaced during the season.

All Coaches must be approved by Diamond Council.

Coaches have ten primary responsibilities:

- 1) It is the responsibility of each Coach to ensure his or her equipment remains in good condition and is safe for use during the season. Diamond Council equipment is inspected for defects when it is returned after each season and re-inspected for defects at the time of distribution. Head Coaches are responsible for the return of the equipment at the end of the season. If the equipment is not returned, the Coach will be billed for the cost of the equipment (approximately $700) and the account will be placed for collection if necessary. Coaches will be notified of return dates and return locations. Diamond Council provides catchers equipment, bats, batting helmets and balls. Team sponsors provide T-Shirts, hats and medals. Players provide shoes, gloves and pants or shorts. Metal and polyurethane spikes are prohibited in all leagues 12 and under. Metal and polyurethane spikes are approved for ages 13 to 18 for both boys and girls, Recreational and Competitive.
- 2) To teach their team the fundamentals of the game.
- 3) To ensure their team is on time and ready to play.

- 4) To ensure the substitution rules of Diamond Council are adhered to.
- 5) To notify the Baseball or Softball Commissioner of any injuries requiring medical treatment within 24 hours.
- 6) To inform the League Coordinator of any problems in field conditions or defective equipment.
- 7) To conduct themselves in a manner becoming their position of responsibility. Coaches are responsible for exemplifying good sportsmanship before, during and after all games and practices. Coaches are to make a concerted effort to promote sportsmanship, teaching players and parents to accept both victory and defeat graciously. Baseball and softball are wonderful games, but they are only games.
- 8) At least one Coach, preferably the head Coach, from each team is required to attend the appropriate Coaching clinic (Basic or Advanced) held by Diamond Council. Diamond Council will pay the clinic fee for one Coach from each team. Additional Coaches wishing to attend are required to pay their own fees.
- 9) Team Photos. ALL teams must have a team photo taken with our league photography company, Legends Sports Photography. Coaches must go to our website to schedule a time. Under the Coaches tab is a link to schedule your team. After you schedule, our league photographer will send a reminder to notify teams of their photo dates and times. Individual and team pictures are offered to players and parents on an optional basis. However, since the sponsor of each team receives a team picture on their thank you plaque, please be present for the team photo session. Here is a sample team picture.

- 10) Each team must have a head Coach and may have one or more assistant Coaches. A Coach must be present at all practices and all games. This is necessary for insurance purposes.

PHILOSOPHY

For every player, success will have a different meaning. For some player's, success will mean hitting a home run, hitting a ball to the grass, getting on base, catching a fly ball, catching a thrown ball or just being involved in a play. Success should be measured in skill improvement, character, quality of effort, sportsmanship and teamwork.

Coach Ejections

If a Coach is ejected from a game by the umpire, The following Rules Shall Apply:

First Offense:

The Coach is suspended from the next game and placed on probation for the season. If your actions on the field result in a forfeit of the game, this will automatically result in a 2 game suspension.

Second Offense:

If a coach is ejected for a second time in a single season, this will result in a suspension from all coaching duties for the remainder of the season. The suspension may not be just limited to losing coaching duties but also losing the ability to attend games and could impact future coaching opportunities.

Remember, as coaches you are also responsible for your parents. If an umpire makes you aware of a parent issue it is your responsibility to address it. If a parent is ejected from the game the Head Coach shall be ejected as well, however this may not result in a suspension or probation for the Head Coach. It will be left to the discretion of the grievance committee.

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

- 1) Be a teacher first and Coach second. The purpose of youth sports is HAVE FUN and develop players
- 2) Development first and Winning if it happens
- 3) Use a method for determining what positions players will play in games
- 4) Emphasize the need to HUSTLE at all times and why

Keep in mind, Coaches of player's ages 4 to 8 can have the greatest impact on a player's development. Do not expect to be a miracle worker but try to help each improve. In order to completely change a habit a player will need to practice a technique 21 consecutive days so that when a player needs to use the technique in a game under a stress situation they will not revert to their old habit. The biggest advantage of working with player's age 4 to 8 is the players usually do not have a lot of bad habits, only bad skills because nobody has ever shown correct technique, they have not had time to develop a habit. One thing to remember is that if you have a one-hour practice with twelve players you will be able to give each player five minutes of individual attention. Always encourage your players to practice at home with parents, brothers, sisters and friends.

On field procedures – Players should be on one knee during meetings or instruction, no talking and all eyes on Coach. This will improve attention and will reduce the amount of distractions. Young players often daydream. Make sure they stay alert.

Practice Tips:

- 1) Plan your practice
- 2) Start your practice on time
- 3) Practice means work, but make it enjoyable
- 4) Work on improving weaknesses instead of strengths
- 5) Understand the difference between correction and criticism
- 6) Make it clear what is expected in practice and games
- 7) Setup 3 practice stations at a time; This will expand your practice time from 1 to 3 hours
- 8) Use soft toss for hitting practice
- 9) Use base runners to simulate game situations

Plan Your Practice

Have a practice agenda of skills and drills you wish to accomplish and allocate a specific period of time for each drill. Tell your team what you will do at practice, do it and tell your team what you did.

Start Your Practice on Time

Be prompt and use your practice time wisely. If you have a one-hour practice time block reserved from 1:00 to 2:00, begin your practice at 12:50. In the ten minutes prior to taking the field you can take care of any discussions with parents, discuss the days practice agenda and even stretch. Also you can give players instruction or review for their first drill, which in most cases will be playing catch. Balls can be given to player's right before 1:00 and assign a Coach to take the players to the outfield to begin the drill. Have one Coach or parent be responsible for moving equipment to the dugout. Make sure parents are aware of the time practice will end and be sure the players are picked up promptly.

Practice Means Work

You can accomplish a lot in one hour but make it fun. Keep the players busy with multiple workstations and multiple skill drills, i.e. combining a soft toss hitting and base running drill. Be creative, kids love to be active. Make the last thing they do fun.

Improve Weaknesses

Improving team and player weaknesses will improve the team's level of play more than improving strengths because there is more room for improvement resulting in more success.

Correction vs. Criticism

Diplomatically correct a player's error in practice. The player learns right at the proper time while it is still fresh in his mind and others learn at the same time. Correction deals with the problem and not the player as an individual. It is a positive step. Criticism is often directed towards the player as a person and usually has a negative effect.

Make it Clear What is Expected

Tell the players what is expected. For Example, items such as not using the telephone, no talking when in a group on one knee, hustling and taking instruction.

Using Multiple Drill Stations

One of the most efficient means of running a practice is multiple workstations. This is a good way to get more parental involvement. Be sure to demonstrate exactly what the players are to do and indicate how long they have to perform the drill, i.e. ten ground balls for each player. After all players are in a group complete the drill switch groups.

GAME MANAGEMENT

Free substitution. All Recreational leagues have free substitution. After completing the first inning of play, the Coach must insert those players who did not play defense in the inning. Players who have played two consecutive defensive innings cannot play a third defensive inning if another player has played only one defensive inning. Starting lineups must change from game to game. Similarly, the Coach must give each player the opportunity to play both infield and outfield in each game. If a game is only two innings, and a player has not had the opportunity to play the infield, the player will play infield in the 1st or 2nd inning of the next game. Competitive leagues have free substitution and no player participation requirements.

Courtesy runner is available for the catcher and pitcher, use it with two outs.

Half Inning Changes. Teams have one minute in each half-inning change of field. If a team is not ready to play the umpire may award balls and strikes.

Dugout Management

To organize the players so they know when they bat, line up the players on the bench in the order they bat. You may keep the same batting order for the entire year and each game begin wherever you left off in the last game. This simplifies the need to come up with a batting order each game and if a player does not come to the game just skip to the next hitter.

MECHANICS & DRILLS

1) Throwing. The quicker players learn the throwing "POWER POSITION" the quicker they will enjoy the game. You will find the majority of problems your team will experience on defense will be solved with players who have learned to throw and catch the ball. Continue to reinforce the POWER POSITION each time the team plays catch. One method of reinforcing the POWER POSITION is to have the players jump into the position every time you say "POWER POSITION" whether it be when you are talking to the players or giving instruction. This will become a game for the team similar to Simon says. Reward players for jumping into the POWER POSITION. Reward the first player to get in the position by having the player be the first to bat and the first player to get a drink.

Playing catch before practice and before a game may be the most important five to ten minutes of the day. Players need to focus on playing catch as part of the warm up routine. Some things a Coach can do is count the number of balls caught or dropped in one minute and challenge the team to improve during the next minute. At the end of the warm up period have a contest to see who can throw and catch from the farthest distance. Try to have a goal of having all players to be able to throw at least half a base distance.

After placing a player in a POWER POSITION; weight on the back foot; elbow away from the body and no lower than shoulder level; point your glove to the target and pull the glove to your side and throw; follow through with the weight shift to your front foot and finish by following through with their right hand on their left pocket for right handed throwers.

Have the players learn to throw on command. Use the following commands:

Set (Both hands at the belt)
Separate (Weight back)
Throw

For ages four to ten year olds, use 1, 2 and 3. 1 for Set, 2 for Separate, 3 for Throw

Players will have 100% of their weight on their back foot on the Separate Command and will finish with 100% of their weight on their front foot on the Throw command. To begin to teach the throwing motion, use shadow throwing. The players will concentrate more on what you are instructing and demonstrating without the distraction of watching where the ball is thrown.

When players catch a ball, have the players step to the ball with their left foot for right-handed throwers.

Throwing Drills:

Throwing for distance and accuracy
Rolling ground balls to your partner and pop to the power position but do not throw
Rolling ground balls to your partner and pop to the power position and throw

Throwing Problems:

Body does not begin at a 90-degree angle with target
Hand and ball are taken behind throwing shoulder
Not following through to left knee
Elbow is lower than shoulder
Front foot should land at a 45-degree angle to target
Weight remains on back foot, no follow through

2) Fielding

Proper fielding position:

- Heel to toe
- Slide feet twice shoulder width apart
- Elbows on knees
- Slide elbows off

For the ready position, feet should be heel to toe and the player should be on the balls of their feet.

To develop proper fielding technique, have players roll ground balls to each other. Before a player rolls a ground ball, they must be sure their partner is in the proper ready fielding position.

Roll ground balls to their partner; field

Set (Ready fielding position; toe-to-toe & twice shoulder width)

For ages four to ten year olds, use 1 and 2. 1 for Set, 2 for Field

Throw (Finish with right hand on left pocket)

Release

For ages four to ten year olds, use 1, 2, 3, 4. 1 for Set, 2 for Field, 3 for Pop, 4 for throw

Be sure to have your fielders be aggressive to the ball

Ground ball drills:

Single cone 1) Shuffle side-to-side 2) Crossover 3) Slide & Glide

Double cones 1) Ground ball left 2) Ground ball right 3) Fly ball over the shoulder

Speed ground ball drill (reps of 5)

Watching a numbered ball to the glove

3) Batting (Balance, shoulder drive, balance, and wrist and rotation).

Batting tees and soft toss are probably the best method to teach a player to hit. Coaches and players at all levels including college teams and major league teams use batting tees and soft toss to improve their hitters and develop technique.

Placement of the batting tee is the most important factor for T-Ball hitters. The stem of the batting tee should always be in front of the leg closest to the pitcher. Placement of the tee farther back in the stance encourages poor techniques and develops bad habits.

There are many soft toss techniques but the best of the methods for beginners is from the side. Proper soft toss should always be thrown from the kneeling position. One of the most significant benefits of soft toss is the number of repetitions a hitter will have is five to ten times more than live pitching.

Building the hitting stroke can be done through the use of commands and repetition. Take a few minutes and explain what you want. Have your players shadow swing if you do not have enough bats.

Have the players learn the following commands;

Ready
Set
Contact (Contact position)

For ages four to ten year olds, us 1, 2, 3. 1 for Ready, 2 for Set, 3 for Contact

After your players can follow the commands then use;

Ready
Set
Contact (Contact position)
Swing

For ages four to ten year olds, us 1, 2, 3, 4. 1 for Ready, 2 for Set, 3 for Contact, 4 for Swing

Hitting Drills:

Soft toss from the side
Speed drill sets of five
Bounce for balance

Place a ball behind your back and command;

Set

If you show the ball the player swings

If you do not show the ball the player stops at the contact position

Hitting problems:

Proper stance
Grip
Balance
Rotation
Swing

4) Base Running

Practice running the bases within other drills

It does not matter which foot you touch a base with

Hit and run to first base drill w/Coach and first base signals

Be aggressive and know where the ball is at all times. Once a player reaches a base their objective is to get to the next base. If the ball is not at your base you should always hold your lead until the ball is returned to the pitcher. Always make the opponent think that if they make a mistake that you will take the extra base. Things as simple as returning the ball to the pitcher can mean an extra base.

Coaches instructions to base runners will be GO, BACK, HOLD or TAKE A TURN. Take "NO" out of your vocabulary; NO sounds too much like GO. Big signals. Be sure your players know your hand signals for STOP and KEEP GOING.

Teams must be uniformly dressed. T-shirts and caps will be provided to all players. Shirt tails must be completely tucked in at all times.

Metal spikes are prohibited in leagues 12 and under. Turf style shoes are recommended. Metal cleats are allowed in both recreational and competitive ages 13-18.

All catchers must wear a protective cup, helmet with mask and throat protector, shin guards and a chest protector. All players warming up a pitcher, on or off the field, must wear a helmet with mask and throat protector.

Batting helmets

- 1) Maximum protection helmets are required.
- 2) Batters, on-deck batters, batboys and base runners must wear batting helmets. A batter will not be allowed to participate if they refuse to wear such a helmet. However, oversight of the helmet's use is not an infraction of this rule.
- 3) If a player intentionally removes the helmet, the player's team will receive a warning. Any further violation will result in the removal of that player from the game.
- 4) Any player coaching in a Coach's box must wear a batting helmet.

Ages 11 - 14	7 innings or 1 hour and 45 minutes; No Drop dead

In order to speed up the game, each Coach should have an inning-by-inning defensive lineup prepared so players will know what position they are playing and the catcher will have their equipment ready. If the catcher is on base with two outs, a courtesy runner must be provided.

The home team will be established by a coin flip at the pregame conference for 10u and older divisions. The starting time for each game will be established at the coin flip. Any inning started within the time limit will be completed. If the home team is ahead when time expires the game is over. A new inning begins the instant the third out is made in the previous inning.

The batting order and player positions should be established prior to the start of the game and no alterations made during the game.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In case of rain, a game reaching three complete innings or over one half of the time limit will be considered a complete game.

Pregame Warm-ups

Pre-game infield is not permitted. Teams may take ground balls on the outfield side of the first and second base baseline and the second and third base baseline only if time permits. Pitchers may not take warm-up pitches from the mound prior to taking the field to begin the game.

Competitive Players

Competitive players are permitted to participate in Recreational leagues, however, the player will generally play up at least one age division. Competitive players are permitted to pitch on their Recreational team. The Executive Director will have the discretion to allow players to play in the same age group as their age, however, the players level of skill will be evaluated during the season to determine their continued participation in the league they were assigned. Certain restrictions may apply such as a player may not be permitted to pitch in the recreational league.

Shorthanded Rule

The purpose and spirit of this rule is for teams to be able to play games even if circumstances leave a team with only seven players to start a game. The main purpose of DC leagues is to PLAY BALL. DC always wants to provide the opportunity to play a game for the players that do show up.

Teams must have at least 7 players to start a game. If a team has at least seven players, the Coach may request the other team provide players from their roster on an alternating basis to play defense only. This will be the last player listed in the batting order in the first inning or the last player to complete an at bat in the prior inning. For purposes of this rule, the team that is short of players will bat first (visitors) in the first inning.

Teams may borrow players from the opposing team for defensive purposes only. The shorthanded team will bat a fixed roster and will not have to take an out in the eight and nine positions of the batting order. If a team is short players (less than 9), the team may only pick up additional players from other DC teams in your league or a younger league (including your opponent). These players will count as part of your seven players required to start a game. Recreational teams may only pick up players from DC Recreational league teams. Competitive teams may pick up players participating on either a DC Recreational league team or a DC Competitive league team.

You may pick up enough players to field 9 players. The pickup player(s) must bat at the bottom of the lineup, preferred positions would be outfield, so that your regular players would get to play infield, however, this is not mandatory. A pick up player may not pitch, unless the opposing Coach agrees to allow the player to pitch. This would be if your team is short of pitchers.

If a regular team member comes late to the game, he is added to the bottom of the lineup and may play. The pickup players may continue to play, however, all regular team members should have priority to play in the field, and pick up players may continue to bat in the lineup and play the field.

Forfeits and Protests

Forfeits and protests are not allowed, except for a team having six or fewer players. See Shorthanded Rule above.

Player Participation

All Recreational leagues have free substitution. After completing the first inning of play, the Coach must insert those players who did not play defense in the inning. Players who have played two consecutive defensive innings cannot play a third defensive inning if another player has played only one defensive inning. Starting lineups must change from game to game. Similarly, the Coach must give each player the opportunity to play both infield and outfield in each game. If a game is only two innings, and a player has not had the opportunity to play the infield, the player will play infield in the 1st or 2nd inning of the next game. Diamond Council requires every player to play an equal number of innings in the infield and outfield over the course of an entire season.

Competitive leagues have free substitution and no player participation requirements.

For Recreational leagues ages 5-12, a player may not continually play the same position for more than two consecutive innings, however in the Recreational League, age 10-11, a pitcher may pitch 3 consecutive innings. All league team batting orders will be fixed throughout the game and must include all players in attendance.

Pre-game infield

Pre-game infield is not permitted. Teams may take ground balls on the outfield side of the first and second base baseline and the second and third base baseline only if time permits.

Any player warming up the pitcher, in the crouch position, is required to wear a catcher's helmet with a mask and throat protector.

Half Inning Changes

Each team will have one minute to change sides each half inning. If the pitcher does not have the ball ready to pitch or if the catcher is not in the catchers box ready to catch within this time limit, a ball may be charged. If the batter is not in the box ready to bat, a strike may be charged.

Between half innings during the change of field, only players and Coaches equipped with gloves may participate in warm-ups. Coaches may not stand in the batter's box while the pitcher is taking their warm-up pitches. This is a safety issue. Umpires have the authority to correct any unsafe circumstances which they deem to be a safety hazard to players, Coaches and fans.

Tied Games

All Recreational and Competitive games tied at the end of the time limit will end in a tie. No extra innings will be played.

Batters and Coaches Signals

After entering the batter's box, a batter may not leave the batter's box to receive coaching signals. After a pitch, unless forced out of the box by playing action, a batter may only step out of the box with one foot to receive coaching signals.

Base Running

If a play is being made on the batter-runner at first base, the batter-runner must step on the outside 1/2 of the base. A warning will be given for the first infraction of this rule by each player. Thereafter, the batter-runner will be declared out if the rule is violated. This will not be considered a force-out. BASEBALL Competitive DIVISION RULES

Diamond Council Competitive leagues follow the USSSA Competitive rules for baseball. Any Diamond Council League specific changes and/or clarifications are listed below.

Field Dimensions	Baseline	Pitching
Boys ages 7-8	60 feet	42 ft front of circle
Boys ages 9-10	65 feet	46 feet
Boys ages 11-12	70 feet	50 feet
Boys ages 13	80 feet	54 feet

Pitching Mounds will be used when available.

Uniforms and Equipment

Teams must be uniformly dressed. Shirrtails must be completely tucked in at all times. Metal cleats are allowed in Leagues ages 13-18 only.

All catchers must wear a protective cup, helmet with mask and throat protector, shin guards and a chest protector. All players warming up a pitcher, on or off the field, must wear a helmet with mask and throat protector.

Stealing

Stealing is allowed in all age groups, except 7-8 boys.

Substitution

Free substitution. Team batting orders will be fixed throughout the game and must include all players in attendance. Courtesy runners may be used for the pitchers and catchers.

Shorthanded Rule

The purpose and spirit of this rule is for teams to be able to play games even if circumstances leave a team with only seven players to start a game. The main purpose of DC leagues is to PLAY BALL. DC always wants to provide the opportunity to play a game for the players that do show up.

Teams must have at least 7 players to start a game. If a team has at least seven players, the Coach may request the other team provide players from their roster on an alternating basis to play defense only. This will be the last player listed in the batting order in the first inning or the last player to complete an at bat in the prior inning. For purposes of this rule, the team that is short of players will bat first (visitors) in the first inning.

Teams may borrow players from the opposing team for defensive purposes only. The shorthanded team will bat a fixed roster and will not have to take an out in the eight and nine positions of the batting order. If a team is short players (less than 9), the team may only pick up additional players from other DC teams in your league or a younger DC league (including your opponent). These players will count as part of your seven players required to start a game. Competitive teams may pick up players participating on either a DC Recreational league team or a DC Competitive League team.

You may pick up enough players to field 9 players. The pickup player(s) must bat at the bottom of the lineup, preferred positions would be outfield, so that your regular players would get to play infield, however, this is not mandatory. A pick up player may not pitch, unless the opposing Coach agrees to allow the player to pitch. This would be if your team is short of pitchers.

If a regular team member comes late to the game, he is added to the bottom of the lineup and may play. The pickup players may continue to play, however, all regular team members should have priority to play in the field.

If a player comes late, they may enter the game and be added to the last position(s) in the batting line up. If a player becomes injured and cannot bat in his spot due to injury, the team will take an out in that spot the 1st time that player comes up to bat. After the first out, there will be no further penalty. The injured player may reenter the game in her batting spot at any time without penalty. EXCEPTION: If a team has only 9 players and one player becomes injured, then there would be an out for that batter for each time his spot comes up to bat.

We encourage Coaches that players be substituted so that no player sits out more than one inning. Each inning a different player(s) should sit out.

Batting helmets

- A. Maximum protection helmets are required.
- B. Batters, on-deck batters, batboys/batgirls and base runners must wear batting helmets. A batter will not be allowed to participate if they refuse to wear such a helmet. However, oversight of the helmet's use is not an infraction of this rule.
- C. If a player intentionally removes the helmet, the player's team will receive a warning. Any further violation will result in the removal of that player from the game.
- D. Any player coaching in a Coach's box must wear a batting helmet.
- E. Players permitted to be out of the dugout, by rule, while on offense must wear a helmet. For example, a batter who strikes out or is retired while running the bases must wear the helmet until they have entered the dugout.
- F. Only one batter at a time can be warming up and must be in the on deck circle. The batter must be on their teams' side of the field while pitchers are making their warm up pitches.

Shoes

Metal cleats are permitted in leagues ages 13-19 only.

Game Length - Run Rule: Run spreads will be 12 runs after 3 innings, 10 runs after 4 innings and 8 runs after 5 innings will be considered a complete game.

Boys Competitive Division ages 7-8	75 minutes; Drop dead at 90 minutes
Boys Competitive Division ages 9-10	90 minutes; Drop dead at 105 minutes.
Boys Competitive Division ages 11-18	105 minutes; Drop dead at 110 minutes.

The starting time for each game will be established at the coin flip. Any inning started within the time limit will be completed, however; if the home team is ahead and batting at the end of time, the game will end. A new inning begins the instant the third out is made in the previous inning.

In case of rain, a game reaching three complete innings or over one half of the time limit will be considered a complete game. Diamond Council will send out a rainout schedule to the Coaches when available and necessary.

DEFENSE

Tied Games

All Competitive games end at the drop dead time limit. The score of the last complete inning will be used. No extra innings will be played if tied at the end of the drop dead time limit. Competitive games can end in a tie.

Pre-game infield

Pre-game infield is not permitted. Teams may take ground balls on the outfield side of the first and second base baseline and the second and third base baseline only if time permits.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Coaches please emphasize the importance of team and player sportsmanship. No cursing or foul language from players, parents, or Coaches will be allowed, and will be cause for immediate ejection from the game. Unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of players, Coaches or fans will not be tolerated this includes trash talking or taunting, i.e. hey batter, batter swing. Players may only direct their comments and chatter to their own teammates. Umpires may, but are not required to, warn players, Coaches or fans of unacceptable conduct. Unsportsmanlike conduct will result in ejection from the game. Any player, Coach or fan throwing any object on the field or in the dugout, will be warned for the first offense and ejected on the second offense. If a player or fan is ejected, the Head Coach may also be ejected at the discretion of the umpire. A second ejection of an offending fan, player or Coach will result in the suspension for the remainder of the season. DC reserves the right to suspend a Coach, player, parent or fan at any time during the season. As a Coach, if you have a problem with a Coach or a player from the opposing team, discuss the problem with the umpire and let the umpire handle the problem. Do not confront the opposing Coach or player. If the problem does not get resolved then call your league coordinator.

The ruling of when the ball is dead and the position of the base runners in relation to the halfway line is a judgment call by the umpire and should not be disputed!

Ages 11-18 No new inning after 70 minutes; Game is ended at 85 minutes

The starting time for each game will be established at the time of the first pitch.

Any inning started within the time limit will be completed. A new inning begins the moment the third out is made in the previous inning.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Columbia Parks and Recreation will monitor weather conditions and inspect the playing fields to determine if the fields are playable. If the fields are deemed not playable, the games scheduled for those fields will be canceled by 4:00 P.M. The local radio stations will be notified of any cancellations. This information will be available on the SPORTS HOTLINE (874-7663). If no announcements of cancellation have been received, assume the game will be played.

At the start or during a game, Umpires will use their own judgment on the delay or cancellation of games due to weather conditions. Games will not be played if it is determined such play might result in injury to players or serious damage to the playing fields. If lightning or severe weather is present, take immediate action to delay or cancel the game and remove the players from the field.

In case of rain, a game reaching three complete innings or over one half of the time limit will be considered a complete game.

All teams are scheduled to play a maximum number of games per league. Rained out games are not guaranteed to be made up unless 3 or more games are rained out. Coaches will be able to reschedule any game that is rained out if they want. Just schedule the game like you would a practice and contact the opposing Coach to schedule the game. Umpires will not be available for these games due to the short notice of some games and irregular game times. The procedure for scheduling additional games will be as follows:

- 1) Contact your players and parents to confirm they want to play on the available dates.
- 2) Contact other teams to set up games.
- 3) Call the DC office to reserve a field.
- 4) Field assignments will be posted on the practice field schedule on the web site.

Pre-game infield

Pre-game infield is not permitted. Teams may take ground balls on the outfield side of the first and second base baseline and the second and third base baseline only if time permits.

Any player warming up the pitcher, in the crouch position, is required to wear a catcher's helmet with a mask and throat protector.

Competitive Players

Competitive players are permitted to participate in Recreational leagues, however, the player will generally play up at least one age division. The Executive Director will have the discretion to allow players to play in the same age group as their age, however, the players level of skill will be evaluated during the season to determine their continued participation in the league they were assigned. Certain restrictions may apply such as the player may not be permitted to pitch in the recreational league.

Pitching Rules

Any player may pitch. 10u Pitchers are not required to pitch in a windmill motion, but still must be an underhand pitch.

Shorthanded Rule

The purpose and spirit of this rule is for teams to be able to play games even if circumstances leave a team with only seven players to start a game. The main purpose of DC leagues is to PLAY BALL. DC always wants to provide the opportunity to play a game for the players that do show up.

Teams must have at least 7 players to start a game. If a team has at least seven players, the Coach may request the other team provide players from their roster on an alternating basis to play defense only. This will be the last player listed in the batting order in the first inning or the last player to complete an at bat in the prior inning. For purposes of this rule, the team that is short of players will bat first (visitors) in the first inning.

Teams may borrow players from the opposing team for defensive purposes only. The shorthanded team will bat a fixed roster and will not have to take an out in the eight and nine positions of the batting order. If a team is short players (less than 9), the team may only pick up additional players from other DC teams in your league or a younger league (including your opponent). These players will count as part of your seven players required to start a game. Recreational teams may only pick up players from DC Recreational league teams. Competitive teams may pick up players participating on either a DC Recreational league team or a DC Competitive league team.

You may pick up enough players to field 9 players. The pickup player(s) must bat at the bottom of the lineup, preferred positions would be outfield, so that your regular players would get to play infield, however, this is not mandatory. A pick up player may not pitch, unless the opposing Coach agrees to allow the player to pitch. This would be if your team is short of pitchers.

If a regular team member comes late to the game, she is added to the bottom of the lineup and may play. The pickup players may continue to play, however, all regular team members should have priority to play in the field, and pick up players may continue to bat in the lineup and play the field.

Forfeits and Protests

Forfeits and protests are not allowed, except for a team having six or fewer players. See Shorthanded Rule above.

Player Participation

All Recreational leagues have free substitution. After completing the first inning of play, the Coach must insert those players who did not play defense in the inning. Players who have played two consecutive defensive innings cannot play a third defensive inning if another player has played only one defensive inning. Starting lineups must change from game to game. Similarly, the Coach must give each player the opportunity to play both infield and outfield in each game. If a game is only two innings, and a player has not had the opportunity to play the infield, the player will play infield in the 1st or 2nd inning of the next game. Diamond Council requires every player to play an equal number of innings in the infield and outfield over the course of an entire season. For ages 7-12 leagues, a player may not continually play the same position for more than two consecutive innings. Team-batting orders will be fixed throughout the game and must include all players in attendance.

Competitive leagues will use USSSA rules, plus have free substitution and no player participation requirements.

Half Inning Changes

Each team will have one minute to change sides each half inning. If the pitcher does not have the ball ready to pitch within this limit, a ball may be charged. If the batter is not in the box ready to bat, a strike may be charged.

Tied Games

All Recreational and Competitive games tied at the end of the time limit will end in a tie. No extra innings will be played.

Batters and Coaches Signals

After entering the batter's box, a batter may not leave the batter's box to receive Coaching signals. After a pitch, unless forced out of the box by playing action, a batter may only step out of the box with one foot to receive Coaching signals.

Base Running

If a play is being made on the batter-runner at first base, the batter-runner must step on the outside 1/2 of the base. If there are double bases, the runner must use the Orange outer base. A warning will be given for the first infraction of this rule by each player. Thereafter, the batter-runner will be declared out if the rule is violated. This will not be considered a force-out. The out will be considered to occur after the end of the play, thus allowing a runner on third base to score.

Courtesy Runner

Courtesy Runners are allowed for the pitcher and catchers. The courtesy runner shall be the last recorded out.

In ages 7-12, a courtesy runner must replace the catcher if the catcher is on base after two outs. The catcher shall immediately put on equipment and be prepared to warm-up the pitcher between innings. The substitute runner must take the same base as the catcher occupied. The substitute runner must be a player not playing defense in the next half inning, but if a substitute is not available, then the second out of the inning will be the courtesy runner.

Unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of players, Coaches or fans will not be tolerated this includes trash talking or taunting, i.e. hey batter, batter swing. Players may only direct their comments and chatter to their own teammates. Umpires may, but are not required to, warn players, Coaches or fans of unacceptable conduct. Unsportsmanlike conduct will result in ejection from the game. Any player, Coach or fan throwing any object on the field or in the dugout, will be warned for the first offense and ejected on the second offense. If a player or fan is ejected, the Head Coach may also be ejected at the discretion of the umpire. A second ejection of an offending fan, player or Coach will result in the suspension for the remainder of the season. DC reserves the right to suspend a Coach, player, parent or fan at any time during the season. As a Coach, if you have a problem with a Coach or a player from the opposing team, discuss the problem with the umpire and let the umpire handle the problem. Do not confront the opposing Coach or player. If the problem does not get resolved then call your league coordinator.

An injured player who is bleeding must be removed from the game and treated immediately. If the player was on defense, he or she may be replaced by any player not in the game. If the player was batting, the count will be reset and the next batter in the lineup will bat. If the player was a base runner, they must be replaced by a player not in the game. In the event that there is no player who is not in the game, the injured player must be replaced by the player who made the previous out.

Miscellaneous Rules

The "home" team shall keep the official score book for the purpose of maintaining the correct batting order for each game and to let the umpire know when the maximum number of runs an inning has been reached.

Designated Coaches and players will be the only persons who may sit on the bench.

All players must remain in the dugout except when batting, playing defense, warming up in the on-deck circle or Coaching in the Coach's box. Penalty for not adhering to this rule will be a team warning on the first violation. For subsequent violations, the offending player will lose their next turn at bat and no out is recorded.

Designated hitters are not allowed.
